Deluxe		$500-1000/per night for a standard room depending on season and resort	Disney's top tier, finest resorts. The price tag is hefty but it is oftentimes worth it. The hotels offer the most amenities and the most comfortable stay at Disney world. The customer service is out of this world and you feel like royalty. These are splurge worthy rooms for sure. I advise getting these rooms when Disney runs their 30% off promotions!	~(some) Have monorail transportation directly to parks ~Disney's finest resorts. They are four star resorts, many with Spas or golf courses ~Each has fine signature dining on site and an array of activities and shopping ~Beautiful design and spacious rooms ~Each has unique amenities which are unique to that resort. The possibilities are endless with deluxe. You are treated like a king and queen here!	Animal Kingdom Lodge Grand Floridian Resort Polynesian Resort Wilderness Lodge Yacht and Beach Club Boardwalk Inn Contemporary Resort
		Moderate	$180-320/per night for a standard room depending on room and season	Disney's 'middle ground' resorts. These aren't as luxurious as deluxe but more so than the value resorts. The rooms are bigger than value but not quite as spacious as Deluxe and the pricetag is more affordable. This is a great option for many families.	~Many resorts offer themed rooms that are great for children! ~Each has rooms that are plenty spacious for a family and many activities as well as pools. ~Restaurants and food courts are available as well as many unique amenities to each resort. ~Offer transportation to Disney, some with boat service.
